

Dilcia Jones

ATTORNEY

With several years of experience in business litigation, landlord/tenant disputes, and creditors' rights litigation, Dilcia Jones has a devotion to serving clients in and out of the courtroom.

Dilcia understands that the difference between good work and great work is attention to detail, and that's just what she does. Dilcia takes pride in ensuring clients know they can depend on and trust her with their cases, and she strives to do the right thing for the right reason.

Dilcia is a proud United States Marine Corps Veteran. She served on active duty from 2002 until 2013. A Marine Sergeant, she left the Marine Corps to attend law school at Indiana University's Maurer School of Law. After practicing in Indiana for several years as both a litigator and registered mediator, Dilcia and her husband moved their family to San Antonio, Texas where Dilcia earned her Master of Laws at St. Mary's University. Dilcia is also the proud mom of four children, including triplet toddlers.

With her background and wealth of experience, Dilcia firmly believes that solid organization, teamwork, collaboration, and loyalty toward a common goal are fundamental for success and client satisfaction. It's with these core values in mind that Dilcia is a successful lawyer and strong advocate for her clients.
